

"All I can say is I have taken more out of alcohol than alcohol has taken out of me"

– Sir Winston Churchill

Sir Winston Leonard Spencer-Churchill born 30 November 1874 and died 24 January 1965 was a British politician, army officer, and writer. He was Prime Minister of the United Kingdom from 1940 to 1945, when he led Britain to victory in the Second World War, and again from 1951 to 1955.

Sir Winston Churchill had mixed English and American parentage and was widely considered one of the 20th century's most significant figures. Sir Winston Churchill remains popular in the UK and Western world, where he is seen as a victorious wartime leader who played an important role in defending Europe's liberal democracy from the spread of fascism. Also praised as a social reformer and writer, among his many awards was the Nobel Prize in Literature.

COCKTAILS

COCO CHANEL NO. 5 | 26

floral | warm | bracing

toasted almond-infused citadelle gin, italicus, lavender, jasmine perfume

A close friend of Churchill, Coco Chanel created the iconic fragrance in 1921. Its elegance and status remain unquestioned, with warm, woody notes underlying a fresh, floral body.

F.E. SMITH | 26

smoky | aromatic | complex

manuka-smoked woodford reserve bourbon, dom benedictine, apricot brandy, absinthe

The warming embrace of a trusty old companion, with the stamina to keep the liquor flowing long into the night. Not many could claim to provide both to Churchill, but F.E. Smith certainly could. The two of them spent the majority of the 1920's coalescing late into the night over stiff drinks and Cuban cigars.

SAVOY ON SUNDAY | 26

deep | herbaceous | savoury

roast beef-washed johnnie walker black, rosemary-drambuie, de bortoli tawny port, citric solution

The illustrious establishment has accommodated all of well-to-do London since opening in the late 1880's. Notorious for celebrity chefs innovating in the kitchen and famous artists performing in the dining room. This savoury offering is inspired by their world-renowned Scottish roast beef.

BRIGHT YOUNG THINGS | 26

tropical | woody | soft-smoke

sir winston gin, carpano antica formula, grapefruit flesh syrup, citric solution

Debauchery and excess were the name of the game for the bright young things - a group of young aristocrats and socialites who tore through town with London's press in hot pursuit. Their lavish parties, flamboyant fancy dress and city-wide, night-long treasure hunts typified the roaring 20's.

SUGAR KANE | 26

rich | deep | complex

plantation dark rum, drambuie, carpano antica formula, whiskey barrel bitters

“Look at that! Look how she moves.” In arguably her most iconic role, Marilyn Monroe’s Sugar Kane perhaps comes across elegantly classic at a glance, but as time goes on, she portrays surprising depth and character. Always fun. A real eye-catcher.

MRS LANDEMERE | 26

savoury | fresh | garden

sir winston gin, limoncello, yellow chartreuse, double-concentrate tarragon syrup, lemon, egg white Churchill’s personal cook for decades, Georgina Landemere was said to have mastered both traditional British food and French fine-cuisine. Creative enough to feed the great man himself, without him ever truly realising how great the effects of rationing were on his kitchen. This cocktail is an ode to her use of unpretentious, quality ingredients to create a complex masterpiece greater than the sum of its parts.

LATE AFTERNOON AT CHARTWELL | 26

floral | refreshing | clean

haymans old tom gin, citric solution, rose & mint syrup, soda

By the 1930’s Churchill found himself doing more and more gardening, the peace of the practice allowing him to deliberate without distraction. As such, the rose gardens at Chartwell flourished under his tutelage, becoming as iconic as they are immaculate. Bright, fresh and floral, they provided an unexpected backdrop for his bid towards parliamentary power.

JUPITER TEA | 26

stone fruit | herbal | forest floor

earl grey-infused vodka, yellow chartreuse, crème de figue, black walnut bitters, citric solution, burma tonic Patent medicine was increasingly popular at the start of the 20th century. These remedies would often, thanks to a lack of knowledge around the subject and a competitive market, be laced with herbs, alcohol and opiates. While they would provide the ill with no discernable medical aid, they were incredibly successful in distracting the imbiber from their symptoms.

MADAME ODETTTE | 45

dry | sparkling | floral

1919 pink gin, pink-shimmer rose, peychauds bitters, pol roger brut nv

Often referred to as the last Great Dame of Champagne, Odette Pol-Roger was the link between the Pol-Roger and Churchill families. A captivatingly elegant woman, her friendship with Sir Winston was instantaneous and ever-lasting, beginning in the 1940's, and culminating in her attending his funeral in 1965. She personally saw that a black border be added to the labels of all Pol Roger bottles sold in Britain following Churchills death.

SECRET TILL SATURDAY | 26

berry | sweet | tart

boysenberry gin, crème de cacao blanc, framboise, lemon, egg white, nutmeg

"Marry me - for I will conquer the world and lay it at your feet". Even the extreme hyperbole written in dozens of love letters from a young Winston Churchill to Pamela Plowden could not convince her to accept his hand in marriage. Years later, having met his future wife Clementine, Churchill sent Ms Plowden a letter titled 'secret till saturday', informing her that he was to be married to another woman, whilst affectionately stating "... you must always be our best friend."

THE OTHER CLUB | 26

tart | woody | soft

olmecca altos plata tequila, thyme-infused blanc vermouth, crème de cassis, honey, citric solution, egg white Considered too controversial to join century-old bBritish parliamentary dining association 'The Club', Churchill set about forming his own. Meeting in a private dining room on the Thames whenever Parliament was in session, 'The Other Club' was as mysterious as it was exclusive.

THE MALAKAND FIELD FORCE | 26

zingy | funky | tropical

martell vs, mango liqueur, turmeric root & dijon mustard shrub, coconut water, cacao bitters

Churchill began his writing career whilst living in India in the late 1800's. Volunteering as a journalist with the Malakand Field Force, he covered their battle against rebels in the Swat Valley in North-West India. He would go on to write his only non-fiction book about the experience. Little doubt he kept a bottle of his favourite Cognac close at hand throughout his time in the battlefield.

MOCKTAILS

LADY NANCY ASTOR | 16

herbal | spiked | invigorating

breakfast tea concentrate, peach, ginger, lemon

Churchill was Secretary of State for War when Nancy Astor first became an MP in 1919. Over the years, the hostility between them was obvious, he openly ignored and criticised her in the Commons. She heckled his speeches and, when asked what she thought about him, stated that “his prejudices were strong.” One famous quote that lives on through history describes her telling him: “Winston, if I were married to you, I’d put poison in your coffee.” His apparent reply was: “Nancy, if I were married to you, I’d gladly drink it.”

BLLENHEIM PALACE | 16

fresh | tall | crisp

apple, feijoa, mint, lemon, soda

Sir Winston Churchill was born on November 30th, 1874, in his family’s ancestral home Blenheim Palace in Oxfordshire. The Palace, named after the 1704 Battle of Blenheim in Bavaria, was designed in the rare and short-lived English baroque style. Architectural appreciation of Blenheim Palace is as divided today as it was in the 1720’s.
